Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination Committee is responsible to carry out the annual evaluation process for the Board and self and peer evaluation by each individual director. The evaluation is conducted annually and internally based on questionnaires tailored for the Company which assess on pertinent considerations such as teamwork, participation, contribution and advice given by each individual Director and good corporate governance practices. The results of the evaluation is then summarised and presented at the Board meeting for deliberation and any action plans as may be required.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Remuneration Committee annually reviews and recommends remuneration of Board members for the approval of the Board and the fees of Directors for shareholders' approval. However, the Company does not use a written formal remuneration policy and procedure as the Company according to its practice traditionally remunerates Directors and Senior Management based on performance and external factors to ensure that the Company attracts, retains and motivates the required skills, qualities and experiences.
